Hi Emma,

Would you like to come to my party a week today (next Thursday)?

I'm really hoping that you can come as you have not seen our fab new house. I've put my new address at the bottom, its quite tricky to find, we are at the end of the lane all on our own. It's so quiet that Dad thinks we should even get a dog (so excited about that!!!!).

I can show you my lovely red shoes that I am getting for my birthday. All I need is to persuade mum to buy me a red dress to go with them!

We are gonna have such a great time, you can even ride Ruby if the weather is good.

We are all going to stay with Grandma tomorrow until next Wednesday, but she does have Wi-Fi so we can keep in touch.

Love you loads, your besty

PS. I'm sending this from my new computer, Dad says that now I'm nearly 14 it's about time I had 1 of my own.
